The Monthly Chronicle of the Robbers Roost Vigilantes

From The President A Vigilante Thanksgiving

Twenty-two Vigilantes turned out for our November match on a beautiful fall day. After a great breakfast served up fresh and hot, they loaded up the guns and went out hunting for their Thanksgiving turkey, but Murphy being the rascal he is, he applied "the law" and things kinda started going downhill.

Turkeys are few and far between in the desert around Crumville, but the Vigilantes figured they ought to shoot something, so they asked the birds to step forward and volunteer, with predictable results.

A home cooked meal being out of the question, they repaired to the hotel for dinner, only to be served up the worst Thanksgiving meal this side of a Civil War prisoner of war camp. Turkey vulture and turkey ain't the same thing, no matter what the cook at the hotel says.

With the idea of a holiday feast totally abandoned, the Vigilantes re-grouped in the saloon, hoping to at least be able to drown their sorrows in peace, but the bartender had other ideas and rendered the final insult of the day by pouring short drinks. As you might suspect, guns were drawn and shots were fired.

Soledad, shooting 49'er, shot his way to the top of the heap. Justin O Sheriff, Bad Bascomb, Marshal Phil Degrave, and Ozark Lawdog rounded out the top 5. Ladies Silver Senior Goode Bascomb was the top lady on the day. Wrangler Red and Justin O Sheriff shot the match clean. Congratulations, everyone! All of the scores are posted.

The air was full of smoke, with no fewer than five shooters burning charcoal. There were three (count 'em, three) Frontier Cartridge Gunfighters, one Frontier Cartridge, and one Frontiersman.

Marshal Phil DeGrave picked up his Dillon RL550 and the (not so cowboy) .223 dies he requested. Congrats, Marshal, and thanks for your support of our fundraiser.

The SASS 2012 California State Black Powder Shootout at Defend the Roost and the Smokeless Powder Resurrection May 17 – 20, 2012

Well, that was a mouthful, but it all pretty much needs to be in there to describe what we're doing. The October time frame that we slipped DTR into this year was a one-time shot. RRBAR had moved the Western Regional to November to coincide with Roy Rogers' birthday, and they've already announced that next year they're going back to October. Since we're all gunshy about November, we're rolling DTR, Resurrection, and the State BP Shootout into one match, and doing it in May.

The match will be run the way we've done Resurrection and the BP Shootout in the past. Poses will have both BP and smokeless shooters, but the BP and smokeless matches will be scored separately. We'll have all the DTR trappings—including the tent, lunches, pot lucks, vendors, awards banquet on the range, the Yelping Coyote, and side matches galore, including The Great Train Robbery and The Professionals, which we used to call Wild Bunch, but can't anymore because of confusion regarding the SASS sanctioned side match called Wild Bunch.

We're going to upgrade the awards for first place in all categories, both BP and smokeless, and we'll present the Skeeter Oly Perpetual Clean Shoot Trophy.

We will only be putting on one annual match this year, and this is it, so we're pulling out all the stops. Every year we ask you to sign up early for Defend the Roost, and this time is no exception, although there's maybe a little more urgency attached due to the compressed time frame. The application is on-line at www.robbersroostvigilantes.com. See you there!

Robbers Roost Vigilantes Invade SASS Western Regional

No fewer than ten Vigilantes, or about 20% of our club, attended the Last Stand at Chimney Rock. I doubt that any club other than RRBAR can make that claim.

In order of overall finish they are: Venomous Doc, 7th place Senior; Bad Bascomb, 4th place Frontier Cartridge; Ozark Lawdog, 9th place Senior; Cowboy Earl, 3rd place Frontiersman; MC Ryder, 7th place B Western; Buckhorn Bud, 4th place Frontiersman; Harvey Mushman, 4th place Senior Duelist; Goode Bascomb, 3rd place Lady Frontier Cartridge; Ball N. Chain, 4th place Lady Wrangler; and Bodie Kid, 9th place Elder Statesman.

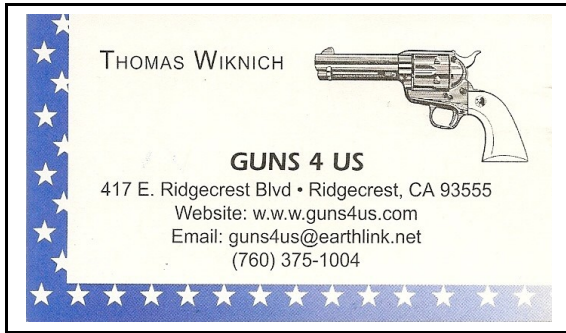

Bad Bascomb won the Speed Shotgun – 87 side match, and Venomous Doc came in first in Speed Derringer.

In the costume contests Ball N. Chain won 1st place Soiled Dove, and 3rd place Lady; Buckhorn Bud got 3rd place Huckleberry; and Bodie Kid, 2nd place Classic Cowboy.

And last but certainly not least, Bodie Kid, who hasn't been well lately, won the Spirit of the Game award for hanging in there and shooting all twelve stages, against all odds. Bodie and Bee Blest are a great team, and we'll be seeing them around the range for a long time to come.

Congratulations to one and all. You guys and gals done us proud!
