The Monthly Chronicle of the Robbers Roost Vigilantes

From The President

Feel That Chill in the Air? Me, Neither.

I'm So Conflicted.

We debated whether or not to shoot on the 5th, since it was still kind of warm, not to mention that it was Labor Day weekend, and the Parade of 1,000 Flags. But nine people said, "If you build it, we will come," and sure enough, nine of the RRV's best and brightest... well, best, anyway...turned out for the match. I wanted to put us into double figures, but I had a pre-planned RV trip.

Bad Bascomb and Venomous Doc put together a fun match that was enjoyed by all. There were lots of shooter choices with regard to gun staging and gun shooting order. Bad Bascomb smoked the field by darn near a minute. The rest of the top 5 were Venomous Doc, M.C. Ryder, Ozark Lawdog, and Cowboy Earl. Top lady Goode Bascomb finished 6th. Good shooting, everybody.

On the 19th we had our annual conflict with Randsburg Old West Days, which is always held on the third Saturday in September. It's a fun event, but you can't be in two places at once, and on the third Saturday, the RRV is at the range.

We had highs in the 80's the prior week, but Mother Nature kicked it up a notch for Saturday, to the tune of about 10 degrees hotter. Even so, 11 shooters came out to try their hand, and they enjoyed a bit of a "blast from the past" on a stage with 10 + shotgun, and some more shooter's choice situations.

Venomous Doc shot his way to the top of the pile, and earned bragging rights for this match. Good shooting, Doc! Bad Bascomb, Cowboy Earl, Wrangler Red, and Goode Bascomb rounded out the top five. Congrats to one and all. All of the scores are listed elsewhere on this web site.

At the meeting before the match, we decided we aren't going to shoot on October 3, as most of the Week One stalwarts will be out of town. But we will be out there on the 17th, maybe not with bells on, but boots and hats, for sure.

Upcoming Special Matches at RRV Range

By Nasty Newt, SASS # 7365

If you look at this month's masthead, you'll see a Remington derringer and a Mosin-Nagant battle rifle. They're an odd couple, but what they have in common is that they are fun guns to shoot, and a lot of us have one or both, but with Defend the Roost in hiatus, we don't get a lot of use out of them. I believe we should see if we can do something about that.

The derringer will have its day in the sun on Side Match Day, Saturday November 14. This is the second Saturday, and there is no cowboy match. It will be all side matches, just like we used to do on Thursday at DTR. Bays will be set up for long range (single shot, lever action pistol caliber, lever action rifle caliber, military bolt action, revolver), 22s, pocket pistol and derringer, semi-auto and double action pistol, speed rifle, speed pistol, speed shotgun, and post cutting. We will also shoot a 2 or 3-stage Plainsman match (cap and ball revolvers, single shot rifle, SxS or single barrel shotgun, all black powder ammo). The Plainsman event will be scheduled (TBA). All other events will be catch-as-catch-can.

That old Russian bolt action rifle, along with its counterparts from the USA, Britain, Germany, Austria, France, Switzerland, and you name it, will get shot 5 times on Side Match Day, but it will get a real workout at the six stage Bolt Action Military Match (BAMM) on Saturday December 12. For that one you will need about 75 rounds of low to medium velocity ammunition. Lead bullets only will be allowed. Gas checks are OK, but if you keep the velocity down you won't need them. General BAMM guidelines are here: <http://www.robbersroostvigilantes.com/RRV%20BAMM%20Match.pdf>

More details on both shoots will be forthcoming, but in the meantime, if you have any questions, I'm easy to find. ☺

Q: Many of the cartridges used in this game, such as .44-40, .44 Special, and .44 Russian, take a .43 caliber bullet, but we call them .44s. Why is that?

A: Because "Ridin' the range once more, totin' my old .43" doesn't rhyme.

Monte Boydston Passes

Monte Boydston, owner of Boydston Construction and other local businesses over the years, has died.

He was instrumental in the construction and maintenance of the Ridgecrest Gun Range, making available heavy equipment including bulldozers for range use free of charge, as well as doing work himself.

His generous support of the range is a favor IWV shooters could never repay. Thanks, Monte, and so long. R.I.P.
